Umeshu & Japanese Confectionery Reception to Follow

After its successful Inaugural Lecture on the tenjobito last year, you are most welcome to attend the second Annual Lecture of The Japan Room. This lecture focuses on the Japanese relationship with aspects of the relatively unusual cultural heritage of Rapa Nui, better known as Easter Island. Please join us for an optional tour, a talk about Japan's involvement with the moai (statues) of Easter Island, and a delectable umeshu (plum wine) and Japanese confectionery reception. The optional tour is at 5.30 P.M. Please assemble at 5.15 P.M. if going on the tour and at 6.30 P.M. otherwise. Tickets are £23. Maximum 75 places, so please book early. Pauline is away 26 March – 15 May, but tickets will be sent out the first week of June. There is no admission without a ticket; please apply below.

Please complete and send with a stamped addressed envelope to: Miss Pauline Chakmakjian, 40B Berkeley House, 15 Hay Hill, London W1X 7LG. Cheques should be made payable to Pauline Chakmakjian.
